Category: Hardware Delivery

Description of Issue:

I ordered an ergonomic dual-monitor desktop arm on August 1st. The delivery arrived yesterday via express courier, but upon unboxing, the main mounting bracket was severely bent and the packet containing M4 mounting screws was missing. I am currently unable to mount either display.

I have included photographs of the damaged shipping carton and the invoice receipt. I do not want an escalation or dispute; I simply request a replacement bracket or the missing accessory pack dispatched.

Resolution & Case Status:

Customer service rep acknowledged hardware transit damage. A complimentary replacement unit (AWB #8831920) was dispatched this morning via courier. Case marked Resolved upon tracking link transmission.
